*Enter his gates with thanksgiving
And his courts with praise;
Give thanks to him and praise his name.
For the LORD is good and his love endures forever;
His faithfulness continues through all generations.

Announcements

Sound/Screen Operators Needed: The church continues to have an URGENT need for additional people to operate the sound board and projector computer during our services. We ask all members to please consider if this is an area where you are being called to work in His service. Interested people of any age can talk to one of the operators, or contact Steve Broer.

From the Deacons: We are working with the COS Committee and are asking for the congregation's help in meeting some immediate physical needs of the YWCA (a home for young women). They are in need of the following articles: new (or gently used) hats, gloves or mittens, boots, and socks. There is a box in the kitchen for your donations. Thank you.

Church Family

Congratulations to Mr. Henry Tenhoor who is celebrating his birthday today, to Mrs. Joanne Mantel on Monday, January 10, to Mrs. Lia Smit on Tuesday, January 11, and to Mr. Henry Helder on Wednesday, January 12!!

Wedding Banns: Brenda Hartemink and Alan Opendries have signified their desire to be united in marriage in this church on January 15, 2011. If there are no lawful objections, the ceremony will take place on that date. The families of Brenda Hartemink and Alan Opendries heartily invite the congregation to share in celebrating their marriage ceremony before God and His people this Saturday, Jan.15 at 2 p.m. in this church. Rev. Rich deLange officiating.

Richard Buis Sr. has been released from the hospital and is recovering at home. Kees VanLiere has returned home as well. Bertha Weesjes remains in University Hospital in London awaiting test results. Please keep all of these members, along with those struggling with cancer and other diseases, in your prayers.
